

Wyatt Erickson

Oakley, CA 93117 • (925) 550-2091 • wyatterickson@ucsb.edu

Summary

Diligent hydrology student building a strong foundation in surface/groundwater hydrology and related sciences. Experience in field work, GIS, qualitative research, and Excel. Passionate about field hydrology and eager to learn and grow skills in the hydrologic sector.

Education

B.S. Hydrologic Sciences: In progress, 3.62 Current GPA

Expected Graduation 6/2026

University of California, Santa Barbara - Goleta, CA

Key Courses: Water Supply & Demand, Groundwater Analysis, 2025 UC Water Academy, Intro Soil Science, Soils of California, Qualitative Methods

Skills

- Data Interpretation and Reporting
- RStudio/R
- Logistic Organization/Planning
- Arc/QGIS
- Interpersonal Communication
- Excel & Google Workspace

Work Experience

- UCSB Associated Food Bank Student Assistant: (11/2023 - 7/2024)
- UCSB Associated Food Bank Student Lead: (7/2024 - Present)
 - Special Programs Lead
 - Event planning & oversight of 6+ auxiliary programs
 - Collaboration with various other student organizations

Clubs/Organizations

- President/Founding Member of Hydrology Club at UCSB
 - Promoting and building a community around the Hydrology major at UCSB
 - Connecting undergraduate students with professors and graduate students for research opportunities, job market insight, and additional educational opportunities